COMMERCE.JAVA SUGAR MARKET REPORT.

Batavia, Oct. 27.

The Holland Pacific Trading Co.

favour us with the following:

Our last report was dated October 20.

During the week under review the market showed a very quiet appearance, quotations remained pretty steady at the beginning of the week and no fluctuations were seen for old crop sugar while the market was easier from the 23rd and sellers were moving down with their prices.

Hardly any business was reported and the market closed dull. At the moment of writing the market for Superior may be given as follows:

October—November delivery sellers F. 12.

November—December delivery buyers F. 12—sellers F. 12.

No business in Muscovado was reported.

Java exports for September 1922 amounted to 283,987 tons, April—September to 901,160 tons.

New crop. The Trust made further sales of big quantities of Browns and Muscovados the latter to a large extent for Japanese account, while the bulk of Browns was sold to European export firms. Up to the present we have not noticed any interest from the Indian market for Java crop 1923. Practically all business in Browns was for refinery account, only 5,000 tons Superior were reported.

Prices unquoted for Superior F. 12.75

Browns, 11.25

Muscovado, 11.—

The total sales from the Trust up to the 28th inst. amounted to 5,845,730 piculs.

Accidents Will Happen.

It may be impossible to prevent an accident, but it is important to be prepared for it. Chamberlain's Ltd in Balu is no beyond any one's purview, and with a bottle of this liniment you are prepared for most anything, or sale by all Chemists and Storekeepers.

“TRUTH, JUSTICE, PUBLIC SERVICE”

HONGKONG, SATURDAY, Nov. 11, 1922.

The prominent merchant HERE'S was dying. Suddenly, he asked his wife to make a list of the pall-bearers for his funeral. She dutifully took the names he dictated. Then, when he had finished, she expressed her surprise: “But John, dear, there are names of well-known bankers and you don't know them intimately.” You never mind that,” he said with a feeble wave of his hand. “They have carried me successfully for the last few months. They might as well carry me to the finish.”

The upper classes are HOW IT'S those that dress for PUT NOW. dinner; the lower classes those that dress for breakfast.

INTERPORT CRICKET

SENSATIONAL FEATS WITH THE BALL

When Hongkong had six of their best wickets down for 36 before tiffin yesterday, things looked very black for the Colony and it was only a magnifico innings by Hancock and the useful help of Webster that prevented the average onlooker from thinking the position of the home side hopeless. However many wonderful things happened in the afternoon and at one stage 8 Shanghai wickets were down for 28 runs.

Any one who had suggested this in the morning would have been talked down as crazy for 300 wickets taken about and the visitors were described as the best team Shanghai has ever sent down. However, there is always a glimmer of uncertainty about Cricket and that was duly exemplified yesterday. The visitors' fielding was splendid and at times, it seemed impossible to get anything past them—38 maiden overs speak for themselves—Wilson's bowling had everyone guessing. He swerves and does all sorts of unexpected things, and Billings is a wonderful captain. He bowled very well, changed his bowlers just at the right time and placed his field to perfection, while his innings was the best effort on his side.

YESTERDAY'S REPORT CONTINUED.

Davies followed Sayer and proved the most enterprising of all the batsmen so far, starting off with 3 singles and a four past the bowler to the Law Court end—and another shot that ought to have been a four of Billings'. Hancock who had been at the wicket more than half an hour was cheered on making his first run and seemed determined to take no risks, which was the only thing to do under the circumstances. Davies who began well put up a single shot to mid off and was nicely caught by Hayward, having scored 9. 36-6-9.

Webster followed Davies and played out the over. Leach now went on for Wilson at the Pavilion end and delivered his first over to Hancock who square cut him for a single. Webster put up a ball which might have been caught by the bowler when he ought to have left it alone but next ball he played a nice leg glide for 3 off Leach and Hancock drove the next ball to the new Pavilion along the Carpet for 4.

Webster cocked another one up from Billings this time, and again followed this up with a pretty drive past the bowler which being well fielded yielded only a single. Hancock hit every ball of the next over from Billings hard between point and Extra Cover, but the fielding was so good that not a single run resulted. Webster in the next over hit a loose one nicely to leg for 4 and another single by the same batsman brought fifty on the board after an hour and fifty minutes' play. O'Hara now went for Leach at the Pavilion end, the opposite end to that from which he bowled at the beginning of the innings. Hancock helped himself to a 4 and two singles off Billings and 60 went up on the board. Although Webster played several poor strokes this partnership was the best of tiffin they were both going strong and Webster especially seemed to have lost any idea of nerves.

After tiffin the stand and all the seats round the ground were filled and both pavilion verandahs were packed.

Hancock made a single off the first ball from Billings and a nice two from Webster gave the impression that these two might stay together for a long time. Wilson resumed at his old end and bowled his first one to Hancock from the last of which the batsman made a beautiful cut between point and cover for 4. O'Hara resumed for Billings and immediately had Webster on the defensive but he got a nice clean hit to leg for 4 from Wilson bringing 80 on the board and next over from the same bowler he got a pretty leg glide to the boundary and followed this up by a splendid on-drive for 4 to bring up 90. He played a rather tempting blow, back to O'Hara, and was very nearly caught by the bowler but lived to hit the same bowler to the screen next over. Hancock had a very pretty hit out of Wilson for 2 and a pretty shot to cover for a single off the last ball of the over to bring him to O'Hara's end, where a single by Hancock and a four to leg from Webster brought the total to 100 after 24 hours' play.

In Wilson's next over Webster in trying to pull the ball to leg played across and was clean bowled. Despite that he might possibly have been out on more than one occasion, he played a spirited innings at a critical time and made many fine strokes especially on the leg side 104-7-35.

The partnership between Hancock and Webster put on 68 runs. Evans was next batsman and signalled his appearance by taking Wilson very nicely to leg for 4. Hancock opened his shoulders to Wilson and hit him to the old pavilion and next ball past the screen and Evans played O'Hara for a maiden, and in his next

ONE WAY OF GETTING AN INTRODUCTION

The modern way for a romantic young girl is to flounce to get an introduction to a good-looking young millionaire in a roadside is to meet him head-on in a collision, and then, as he unwraps a tire from about his neck, to smile sweetly and say:

"OH, WHEN DID YOU DROP IN?"

That is the way they do it in

KENNEDY TOWN BLAZE
YESTERDAY'S BIG OUTBREAK STORIES OF THE FIRE.

Further details gathered in regard to the disastrous fire at Kennedy Town which was reported in yesterday's China Mail show that in all twenty two houses were destroyed while three Chinese were killed and burned and two are missing.

It is thought that the blaze began either in a house in Belcher Street which is used as a godown for the storing of sulphur or in the house next to it. A violent explosion occurred in the godown just before 4.30 a.m. and so great was the force of it that it blew out the party walls and did a deal of damage to the front and rear walls of the premises. Lumps of burning sulphur landed on the timber yard opposite and soon set it ablaze. The fire spread to the houses on both sides of the godown and, fanned by a strong wind from the east, went westward along Belcher Street to the corner of Smithfield where it travelled along another terrace of houses right down to the tramline.

The firemen were on the spot about ten minutes after the alarm was given at 4.31 a.m. but they were handicapped at the outset by a poor water pressure and until the fire-engines and the fire-fight could be brought into action the flames made pretty good headway. It was 7.30 a.m. before the blaze was really under control and it was found necessary to keep hoses playing on the smouldering timber-yard all night.

As far as can be ascertained at present six of the houses that were destroyed in Smithfield were insured with Young On Company, a company represented by Messrs Reiss & Co. has insured two of the houses; the South British and the London, Liverpool and Globe are interested to the extent of $20,000 each and part of the risk is shared by the Sincere Insurance Company.

DAMAGE GREAT.
The fire originated in No. 59, Belcher Street, ground floor, together with the ground floors of Nos. 55, 57, used as godowns for storage of salt-petre by Yu Hing Cheung and Chun Kwok Co. of 44 Connaught Road West. Goods were insured with Messrs Butterfield and Swire to the extent of $4,000 and the South British Co. for $10,000.

The numbers involved were 55, 57, 59, 61, 63, 65, 67, 69, 71, 73 Belcher Street (all 4 storey buildings), mostly gutted; 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12, Smithfield, gutted; 22 Cachick Street, badly burnt; 1, 2, 3, Hau Wo Street, woodwork slightly damaged; timber yard No. 60 Belcher Street, tenant Wing Sing Cheung and Wang Tye; mostly teakwood, Chin, Fir and pinewood stored, ignited by sparks from explosion.

The damage has not yet been estimated, but as nearly all the ground floors were used as shops or godowns, the damage to goods is expected to exceed $200,000. In addition to this, there is the damage to the buildings.

CASUALTIES. The casualties (known so far)

The name of the woman who fell is Cheung Choy, aged 50 years. Spectators say she was following other inmates across a plank over the lane between the backs of houses in Smithfield and Belcher Street when she lost her footing.

Li Chuen, male, 81, of 1st Floor, 59 Belcher Street. Reported missing by daughter-in-law.

Leung Ha, female, 42, reported missing.

Small boy, missed by his parents.

SEVERE EXPLOSIONS.

Last night the Timber Yard was still smouldering and relays of two-fifteen men hard at work.

The explosions were so severe that windowpanes 100 feet away were broken. People in the streets some distance away felt the vibrations.

Early yesterday morning, some of those rendered homeless slept outside the new Sanitary Department's quarters at the foot of Belcher's Fort. Some found a temporary home in the Tai Pak Lau, a restaurant not far away.

As the front part of the houses in the eastern side of Belcher Street was slight first, a number of inmates could not go down the stairs. They made their way to the roofs and crossed to the houses in Smithfield by means of planks. A spectator avers that there was quite a number up there at the time of the second explosion and after the shock they had disappeared.

People in bed in Cachick Street were thrown to the floor and a number of folks making their way down the stairs of the Tin Iu Teahouse, No. 22 Cachick Street, were thrown to the bottom.

The Butcher's (Master's) Guild is in the 2nd floor of No. 58 Belcher Street. Mr. Au Yeung, King-sing, managing partner of the Tung Wing Tai Bed Stall, who supply the Peak Hotel, says he only got out in the nick of time. It is usual for master batches to spend the night in

STOWAWAY CHARGED.
BROUGHT BACK HERE FROM SINGAPORE.

Stephen Hartow, a native of Liverpool, was charged before Mr. J. R. Wood this morning with having stowed away on board the N.Y.K. s.s. "Tama Maru."

Inspector Moody said defendant stowed away from Hongkong to Singapore on October 26. The police at Singapore refused to allow him to land, and he was brought back by the "Kitano Maru."

Defendant said he had worked on ships from 1917 to 1921 and then worked for some time in Canada finally coming out to Manila from New York on an American ship. He missed his ship at Manila and bought a passage to Hongkong. From here he stowed away to Singaore.

A remand in police custody was given until Monday.

UNLAWFUL ARMS.

Two Chinese were sentenced by Mr. J. R. Wood this morning to three months' jail apiece for the unlawful possession of two revolvers and a Winchester pistol, respectively.

The first man, who was arrested on the Kowloon wharf, said he had only just arrived from the country and did not know local regulations. A man engaged him to carry the pistols.

The other, a saloon boy on the "President Cleveland" said a friend in the U.S.A. asked him to take a pistol to relatives at Macao. He also pleaded ignorance of the law.

M. Rakovszky, the Minister of the Interior, has ordered a fresh registration of all foreigners in Hungary with a view to expelling those whose presence economically or politically is undesirable.

the Guild to facilitate early work in the morning. He said that everybody ran downstairs on hearing the first explosion and the smoke was very dense on the stairs. All the black-wood furniture in the Guild was destroyed.

Mr. Lam Cheuk, the owner of the Wo Hing Pork Stall, doing business in the ground floor of No. 1 Smithfield suffered a heavy loss by the fire. He had over $2,000 in cash in a trunk and insisted on going back to get it although the flames were burning on the first floor. A joss prevailed on him not to take the risk and just then the second explosion took place with the result that all the fittings in the building came tumbling down. His concubine also lost about $1,000 worth of jewellery.

OTHER BIG FIRES.

Below are given particulars of other big fires in the West Point and Kennedy-Town districts during the last few years:

Six years ago the timber yards involved in the present fire were destroyed, together with the adjoining yards. The block of houses in which this fire originated was just built then and the woodwork was ignited. Dr. Pearce, the M. O. H. collapsed in one of the houses while helping the firemen. The stone wall of the residence was heated to such an extent that it cracked in several places.

The damage has not yet been estimated, but as nearly all the ground floors were used as shops or godowns, the damage to goods is expected to exceed $200,000. In addition to this, there is the damage to the buildings.

KOWLOON SHOOTING INCIDENT.

CONSTABLE WOUNDED.

Chinese constable No. 412 was the victim of a shooting affair at Homontun last night. He is now in hospital receiving treatment for a revolver wound in the chest.

The constable was one of a picket of Indian and Chinese constables who are now being sent out every night under a European sergeant to patrol the isolated districts in Kowloon.

The shooting, occurred on the Homontun railway bridge at 7.30 p.m. The constable who was walking a little ahead of the picket, stopped a man carrying a rattan hand bag and announced his intention of examining the contents.

As he was about to open the bag, the suspect suddenly whipped out a revolver from his girdle and fired a bullet at the constable. The bullet struck the constable on the left side of the chest just above the heart and lodged in the shoulder-blade.

The rest of the picket chased the assailant, and fired several shots after him, but apparently without any effect. He made good his escape.

The constable was operated upon and the bullet extracted. He had a good night and is expected to recover.

THE NEW VERSION OF AN OLD STORY.

A correspondent writes to The Observer: "The idea of a spider falling a victim to a fly is a little outside ordinary experience, and yet I have observed such an occurrence, not merely once but twice, both occasions being the result of deliberate intention and not accident. Inhabiting the houses of man in West Africa is a wall spider

SECOND DAY.

THIS MORNING'S PLAY.

The weather was again fine and a good deal warmer than on the first day and by 11 o'clock there was a large attendance of spectators. The public stand was full and round the rope on the west side the crowd was very deep. On account of the two minutes' silence and the Church service the match did not start until 11.35 when Oliver and Evans continued the innings. Quick was out caught by Leach of Billings, just before stumps were drawn yesterday and the score read 20 18 when Wilson started bowling from the pavilion end. The wicket after it had been rolled looked better but the Law Courts end was very patchy and looked as if it would make the ball get up uncomfortably, while the bowlers had left their mark at both ends. Evans pulled the first ball from Wilson nicely to leg for 4 and then made a single to Extra Cover. Oliver coming to the other end found difficulty with the first ball, he received but placed the last ball of the over nicely to leg for a single. O'Hara bowled from the Naval Yard end and Oliver placed him short to leg for a hard run single bringing Evans down to face the left hander who seemed to puzzle him somewhat. The first ball of Wilson's next over got up quickly and Oliver played on off the shoulder of his bat, thus bringing two wickets down for 27. Pearce took Oliver's place and faced Wilson making a single off the second ball past mid-off. Pearce now faced O'Hara and played him for a maiden.

Evans never seemed comfortable against Wilson and after playing four balls of his next over in unconvinced fashion he cleaned bowled with a splendid ball which kept low and took his middle stump 28-3-6. Hancock now went in amid applause from the spectators. He started as he left off on the first day in convincing style and played out the over. Pearce had a lovely off-drive which was and clergy, followed by H. E. the Acting Governor and the congregation proceeded to the Fallen Soldiers' Memorial. Here His Excellency stepped forward and laid a wreath on the memorial on behalf of the community with the words "Rest eternal grant to them O Lord and may light perpetual shine upon them." A beautiful floral cross with a centre of poppies was placed on the memorial by Mr. N. Teesdale Mackinon on behalf of the Ex-Active Service Men's Association and a wreath was also laid by Mr. G. T. M. Edkins on behalf of Taikoo. There were also wreaths from the Oriental Lodge of the R.A.O.B.

In Mr. R. E. Lindell's Court at the Magistracy this morning, the Magistrate, Court Officials, policemen, spectators and the prisoners in the dock, all stood up when the gun was fired at 11 o'clock, and remained in silence for two minutes. The same thing occurred in the Charge Room, and other police offices. After the first minute had passed, two Indian buglers of the Police Force marched to the centre of the compound and sounded the Last Post, the other policemen in the vicinity standing at attention the while.

THE "POPPY DRIVE."

A band of ladies sold dainty little artificial poppies throughout the day in aid of Earl Haig's fund for distress and servicemen and their dependants and the secretary of the organising committee (Mr. A. H. Cobb), when spoken to over the telephone at 12.30 said he thought the amount raised from all sources would approach $4,000 at any rate.

TO-NIGHT'S FUNCTIONS.

Functions arranged for to-night include the British Legion's dance in the City Hall and the Ex-Active Servicemen's dinner in the Hongkong Hotel. H. E. the Acting Governor and many other notabilities will be present at both.

REPÄRATIONS.

PARIS, November 9th.
After a speech by M. Poincaré on reparations, the Senate unanimously passed a vote of confidence in the Government.

M. Poincaré said that Germany, although professedly bankrupt, was rebuilding and increasing her mercantile fleet, and quadrupling certain strategic railway lines. France would persist in the demand for the control of German finances and exports. A question would be asked at the Brussels Conference, whether the Allies would consent to resort with France, if necessary, to force. France counted on the friendship of Britain who could count on the friendship of France. She would exercise her right sooner than be unpaid.

Asked by the Reporter-General whether he admitted that the ninety milliard of francs—France advanced for reparations on Germany's account were lost except for the interest thereon, M. Poincaré replied that the Government would forego no part of what was due to keep intact the guarantees under the Treaty.

LORD MAYOR'S BANQUET.

LONDON, November 9th.
Traditional state and ceremonial marks of the Lord Mayor's Banquet at the Guildhall, which was attended by several Ambassadors, including the Japanese.

Mr. Bonar Law, who only arrived after the dinner suffering from a cold and a husky voice, was heartily cheered on rising to respond on behalf of the Government. His only reference to the present electoral contest was a reminder that while all parties but one were fighting the Labour Party none was fighting Labour, because if such were the case not one of them could have a candidate returned. He proceeded to declare that the Government's aim was to give to the League of Nations greater opportunities for usefulness. There was nothing new to tell them about Constantinople where the Allies were acting with most complete unanimity. He believed that the difficulties there would be overcome and peace in Europe secured, if the wartime Allies would act together.

SIKI SUSPENDED.

PARIS, November 9th.
The French Boxing Federation has suspended Siki for nine months and deprived him of the title of French Champion. This does not preclude the meeting with Beckett, if the venue can be fixed, since the contract was signed before yesterday's incident.

SHIP AFIRE.

SHANGHAI, November 10th.
At least 200 Chinese were drowned or burned to death early this morning when a chicken boat named the "Tashing" caught fire in the river and beached in the Yangtze-poo.

The vessel was proceeding up the Whangpo when the fire was discovered. The "Tashing" carried unusually large numbers of Chinese passengers, mostly coolies. The cause of the fire is not stated.

SHANGHAI CLUB.

SHANGHAI, November 10th.
A novel function took place last night at the Shanghai Club, where Mr. Oscar Berry, a member of the City of London Corporation, who is visiting Shanghai and therefore unable to attend the Guildhall Banquet, gave what is probably the first Lord Mayor's Banquet ever held outside of London—in honour of the new Lord Mayor, Mr. F. C. Moore.

The guests included the Consul-General Mr. S. Barton, C.M.G., Dean Symons and Judge Grin.

AMERICAN IMMIGRATION.

WASHINGTON, November 9th.
It is declared at the Treasury Department that any proposal to modify the existing American immigration restrictions, in order to provide the country with a greater labour supply, will have the approval of Mr. Mellon, the Secretary to the Treasury, although he will require some means of selection devised to prevent an undue increase in other classes of immigrants. Mr. Mellon holds that the rising tide of prosperity is responsible for the labour shortage and this, in turn, is largely accountable for the continuance of high prices.

Daily use of the soap keeps the skin smooth and clear, whilst the use of the cream now and then prevents little skin troubles becoming serious. Cuticura Talcum is ideal for powdering.
